AURA-Workforce

Skill and competency glossary, A-Z. This is the exact vocabulary used by the profile form and by the AI planner: the model may only suggest items from this list.

10 tools and software · 23 practical skills · 12 competencies · 45 entries

#	Skill	Type	What it means in practice
1	Adaptability	Competency	Adjusting to new tools, rules or priorities.
2	Adobe Creative Suite	Tool	Professional design and editing tools (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign).
3	Attention to detail	Competency	Catching errors others miss.
4	Canva	Tool	Template-based design tool for quick visual content.
5	Cash handling	Practical	Counting, reconciling and recording money safely.
6	Clinical documentation	Practical	Recording patient care accurately and defensibly.
7	Coaching	Competency	Helping someone improve without doing it for them.
8	Collaboration	Competency	Working across teams toward a shared result.
9	Communication	Competency	Explaining clearly in writing and in person.
10	Content writing	Practical	Writing copy or articles for a defined audience.
11	CRM systems	Tool	Customer relationship software that records contacts, deals and follow-ups.
12	Customer support	Practical	Resolving customer questions and complaints directly.
13	Data analysis	Practical	Turning raw records into findings someone can act on.
14	Data entry	Practical	Accurate, fast transfer of information into systems.
15	Decision making	Competency	Choosing between options with incomplete information.
16	Documentation	Practical	Writing procedures and records others can follow.
17	Empathy	Competency	Reading how someone feels and responding well.
18	Figma	Tool	Collaborative interface and product design tool.
19	Google Analytics	Tool	Web and campaign analytics for traffic and behaviour.
20	Inventory auditing	Practical	Checking stock records against physical reality.
21	Inventory management	Practical	Planning and controlling stock levels.
22	Leadership	Competency	Setting direction others choose to follow.
23	Logistics coordination	Practical	Moving goods and people on time.
24	Manual PO processing	Practical	Raising and tracking purchase orders by hand.
25	Microsoft Excel	Tool	Spreadsheet work: formulas, pivots, cleaning and reporting.
26	Organization	Competency	Keeping many moving pieces in order.
27	Patient coordination	Practical	Scheduling and supporting a patient's care journey.
28	Power BI	Tool	Microsoft's dashboarding and data-preparation tool.
29	Problem solving	Competency	Finding the cause and a workable fix.
30	Process mapping	Practical	Documenting how a process actually runs, handoff by handoff.
31	Procurement	Practical	Buying goods and services under policy and budget.
32	Project coordination	Practical	Keeping tasks, people and dates aligned.
33	Python	Tool	Programming language used for data work and automation.
34	Quality assurance	Practical	Checking work against a standard before it ships.

#	Skill	Type	What it means in practice
35	Recruitment support	Practical	Screening, scheduling and onboarding candidates.
36	Reliability	Competency	Doing what you said, when you said it.
37	Report writing	Practical	Turning results into a written summary for decision-makers.
38	SAP / ERP systems	Tool	Enterprise resource planning software for purchasing, stock and finance.
39	Shift scheduling	Practical	Building rosters that cover demand and respect constraints.
40	SQL	Tool	Query language for reading and summarising structured data.
41	Supplier coordination	Practical	Managing day-to-day supplier relationships and deliveries.
42	Teaching & facilitation	Practical	Helping others learn or reach a decision together.
43	Time management	Competency	Protecting the important work from the urgent noise.
44	Vendor communication	Practical	Negotiating and corresponding with suppliers.
45	Visual design	Practical	Composing visuals that communicate clearly.

Source and licensing: the categories follow the O*NET Content Model (Transferable Skills and Software Skills, CC BY 4.0) and the ESCO skills pillar (13,939 skills, European Commission, free reuse with attribution). The wording of each definition is our own, written for this prototype. Items are intentionally limited to what the prototype can act on; ESCO is the reference for the full taxonomy.